I think that wiretapping covertly should not be illegal. Wiretapping will slowly eliminate possibilities of terrorist attacks. Also if the government doesn't even wiretap a possible terrorist, there is a possibility that suspicious activity such as a normal crime like a robbery will not happen. Covert ~~not~~ wiretapping will stop terrorism and crime from the source. Lastly if a normal person was calling their international friend what would they be doing wrong if they were wiretapped. So they have nothing to worry about. Besides they wouldn't even know if they were getting wiretapped anyway.
